

Your leading Swiss personnel service provider in healthcare

We offer two options for our outplacement services:

Basic

- Making contact, clarifying expectations and goals as well as defining individual outplacement needs
- Determination of the current status (personality tests, status of application documents)
- Development of an individual application strategy
- Professional preparation of application documents
- Interview training

3 months accompaniment : CHF 5'000

Premium

- Making contact, clarifying expectations and goals as well as defining individual outplacement needs
- Determination of the current status (personality tests, status of application documents)
- Development of an individual application strategy
- Professional preparation of application documents
- Several interview training sessions with video feedback
- Assistance with the systematic adjustment of the application strategy to the application process
- Intensive Coaching

6 months accompaniment : CHF 10'000

Your Coach - Certified Psychologist Birgit Troschel

After studying psychology, I worked in Frankfurt as a management consultant at the audit and accounting firm Arthur Andersen LLP for 10 years. Since 2002 I have been working for Stettler Consulting AG and am responsible for the areas of coaching, training and diagnostics. In 2008 I made partner and became a member of the management board.

For reference information, we are happy to put you in touch with long-standing clients.
We look forward to accompany you and your team on the road to success!